Renacer... amar lo que es, dejar que suceda, desapegarte de lo mundano para florecer desde el interior. Sufrir en silencioso llanto, con lágrimas bloqueadas... de las que no empapan, y transformar ese inmenso dolor en empatía hacia el sufrimiento ajeno como si fuera tuyo, por que todos somos lo mismo... el todo y la nada, y es en esa nada donde aprendemos a no tener expectativas al resultado final... porque no hay fin hay eternidad y lo importante es el camino, cada instante, cada aliento...

Sentir el amor incondicional, sanador y curativo, con la preciosa humildad de dejarse querer, sabiendo que hemos venido a manejar la dualidad, porque no existiría el yin sin el yan, porque la vida no es lo que te pasa si no como te tomas lo que te pasa, esta es nuestra poderosa elección, crecer, evolucionar... por todo lo aprendido, y con todo ello, gracias por que he vuelto a renacer, despertándome a la vida...

To reborn... to love what is, to let it happen, to detach yourself from the mundane to flourish from within. To suffer in a silent cry, with blocked tears... of those that do not soak. And to transform that immense pain into empathy towards the suffering of others as if it were your own, because we are all the same... everything and nothing, and it is in that nothing where we learn not to have expectations about the final result... because there is no end, there is only eternity, and what matters is the path, every moment, every breath...

To feel the unconditional, healing and curative love, with the precious humility of letting yourself be loved, knowing that we came into the world to handle duality, for there would be no Yin without Yan, for life is not what happens to you but how you take what happens to you. This is our powerful choice: to grow, to evolve... To everything I have learned, and despite it, thanks because I've been reborn, and I'm waking up to life...

TERESA CALDERÓN

Vive gran parte de su vida en Asia, es allí donde esta artista polifacética fusiona sus diferentes lenguajes artísticos en un mismo lienzo. Influenciada por su cultura, color, fuerza y su apasionante caos armónico,... plasman en sus obras la máxima expresión de la belleza...!!

Buscadora de momentos... exponiendo entre dos mundos contradictorios Oriente y Occidente...expresa sus emociones.. entregada al lienzo artístico de su vida!!

She lives most of her life in Asia. It is there where this multifaceted artist joins her different artistic languages in the same painting. She is influenced by her culture, strength, and passionate harmonic chaos... showing in her works of art the supreme expression of the female...!!

She is a dreamer...existing between two controversial worlds : East and West....she expresses her emotions throwing herself into the art of life!!

Aves... the immortality of the soul

Expreso con colores todas aquellas emociones para las que no tenía palabras, manifestándose a través de mi, las aves (como ángeles de la inmortalidad del alma) escarabajos "scarabeus" símbolo del sol naciente, que cada día Renace de sí mismo, y de manera intuitiva me obsesione por toda la gama de azules y verdes en especial el índigo como color de la purificación y sanación eterna...el renacer del alma ...!

I expressed with colours all those emotions manifesting through me and for which I had no words. The birds, like angels of the immortality of the soul; the beetles "scarabeus", symbol of the rising sun that reborns every day from itself... and intuitively I became obsessed by the whole range of blues and greens, especially indigo as the colour of purification and eternal healing... the rebirth of the soul...!
